

ELEMENTS OF SHANGHAI STYLE WITH CURATOR DANY CHAN

THURS., JUNE 10, 5:30-6:30PM

OSHER GALLERY

A VISION OF POP-CULTURE MODERNITY

Did you know that Shanghai Style (Haipai) began with 19th-century ink painting? By the 20th century, it came to define Shanghai's pop culture with the "modern girl" as its icon. There is even talk now of a revival--a "new Haipai." Join me for a look into the transformation of this phenomenon through the paintings, prints, fashion, and films presented in the Shanghai exhibition.

In addition to the talk, enjoy a docent-led tour or audio tour of the Shanghai exhibition and refuel in CafeAsia, which offers a special menu of Shanghai flavors.

$10

www.asianart.org

Twitter: AsianArtMuseum